

Dexter Galvin

SVP Climate &
Climate Ambassador
EcoVadis

Writing, interviews and public conversations about climate mitigation and adaptation, supply chains and sustainable finance.

BIOGRAPHY

Dexter Galvin is SVP Climate and Climate Ambassador at EcoVadis. He speaks on corporate decarbonisation, sustainable finance and climate resilience, with deep experience in Scope 3 and supplier engagement. During sixteen years at CDP, he built and led its Supply Chain programme and became Chief Commercial and Partnerships Officer. He is a GHG Protocol adviser and co-host of The Scope 3 Podcast.

SELECTED STAGES & CONVERSATIONS

COP panels. World Bank roundtable moderator. ITU and OECD forums. Chatham House, INSEAD and Bloomberg Live. Explore recordings and original sources at dextergalvin.com/speaking.

TALKS, INTERVIEWS & CORRESPONDENCE: ENGLISH ONLY

dextergalvin.com/contact

Full record on LinkedIn

Big questions. Practical consequences.

01 A target is the start. What happens next?

How to connect corporate climate ambition with investment and commercial decisions, with a closer look at Scope 3 and the suppliers that matter most.

02 What are we asking our suppliers to do?

What buyers should ask of suppliers, what support makes action possible and how purchasing decisions can reward progress.

03 Can we trust the carbon number?

How to judge the evidence behind supplier emissions data and decide when a number is good enough to guide action.

04 What does finance make possible?

How credible climate data, commercial incentives and financing decisions can support corporate decarbonisation, drawing on supplier programmes and institutional partnerships.

05 Cut emissions. Prepare for the climate we face.

How to connect emissions reductions with adaptation, using supplier relationships to address climate impacts, water stress and forest-related risks.

PUBLIC RECORD

Talks · Panels & fireside conversations · Broadcast interviews · The Scope 3 Podcast

Explore recordings, articles and original sources at dextergalvin.com/media.
